

Bathroom Lighting Tip

When lighting a bathroom the first and most important focus should be on the vanity lighting. Ideally a vertical fixture should be hung on either side of the mirror. This allows for light to be evenly distributed across one's face. The fixtures should be mounted approximately 5.5 feet above the floor (eye level), and 36-40 inches apart. This helps to eliminate shadows under the eyes and chin.